Streaming's gotten difficult.

Dozens of streaming services, way too much content, and has anyone noticed how expensive it's all gotten?

With all the trouble, Cable's starting to look like a sustainable option.

But contracts and hidden fees make seeking entertainment feel like a commitment.

What if there was a way to ditch the hidden fees, dozens of passwords, and cable boxes all together?

Now, there is.

Say hello to Bouquet, the pleasant, cheap solution for Streaming.

Bouquet allows you to take your pick of the dozens of streaming services in our catalog, bundle them, and get a reduced rate for any number of them.

Now, Disney+, Netflix and HBOMax won't be fighting for importance. All of your content will be at your fingertips, easily accessible through the search bar.

With Bouquet, you never have to worry about remembering 20 different passwords.

One universal login will give you access to both your content and your subscription information.

Not using a service? Cancel one or all of them with just a few clicks.

You can even pause your subscription easily, or start a new bundle for a short period of time.

Don't want to pay for Netflix until the next season of Bridgerton?

Pause one bundle, and unpause another. It's that easy.

Don't worry about family, either. With Bouquet's family plan, you can place up to four separate households onto your Bouquet Bundle Plan for just a few dollars extra per household.

Bouquet is streaming made easiest. Sign up for Bouquet today.
